

We are pleased to announce

ACEO FORUMS

ONWARD.

Developing our leaders.

At the Atlanta CEO Council, we have been cultivating a strong network of CEOs & senior leaders built on merit and impact since 1999. Now we are taking the next bold step to help even more succeed. ACEO Forums is a new CEO-specific program focused on mentoring, peer learning, capital exposure, and customer access to help develop CEO-level talent.

TOGETHER.

Building our community.

By making the financial and personal commitment to become an ACEO Forums member, you will not only gain access to a professionally facilitated roundtable forum group, introductions to various sources of capital, and connections to customers -- you'll be investing in yourself and your community.

Questions? Answers.

FAQ

Q: Who is eligible to join ACEO Forums?

A: CEOs of technology product companies with at least $0.5MM in revenue, sales, or investment who are committed to helping themselves and others succeed.

Q: What does it mean to become an ACEO Forums member?

A: As a member, you get:

- A formal roundtable group which uses proven methodology to amplify your growth and success
- Monthly live webinars with capital sources from around the country
- The opportunity to meet game-changing, Fortune 500 customers
- A network of technology product CEOs striving to be better leaders
- Quarterly learning events relevant to your specific challenges
- Access to ACEO's rich networking events

PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

Confidential peer-learning forums to amplify personal and professional success

INTRODUCTIONS TO CUSTOMERS

Leveraging the ACEO network to get introductions to to game-changing customers

EXPOSURE TO CAPITAL

Monthly webinars connecting CEOs to investors from around the country

ACCESS TO TALENT

Meet young and hungry talent by serving as a coach in the new CEO Apprentice Program

JOIN US.

To apply, please visit
atlantaceo.org/membership